SHC throws out plea against financial burden of BRT projects

By Ishaq Tanoli

KARACHI: The Sindh High Court has dismissed a petition filed against the ongoing Bus Rapid Transit (BRT) projects in the city for incurring a huge financial burden on the public.

A two-judge constitutional bench headed by Justice Yousuf Ali Sayeed observed that the petition was not fit to issue a writ since the matter squarely came within the domain of the executive branch and the interference would result in judicial overreach.

While turning down the petition for being misconceived, it also imposed a cost/fine of Rs25,000 upon the petitioner with the direction to deposit the same in the account of the clinic of the SHC within a week.

Citing the chief secretary of Sindh, secretary of transport & mass transit department, provincial finance secretary and others as respondents, petitioner advocate Ashfaque Ali Panhwar approached the SHC impugning the BRT/mass transit projects being initiated by the respondents in Karachi and other areas.

He asserted that such projects have hinged on massive foreign and domestic loans incurring a huge financial burden on the public at large due to the consequent imposition of taxes while these projects remained incomplete and commercially unviable.

The petitioner also contended that such acts of respondents had violated Articles 4, 9, 23, 24 and 25 of the Constitution and as Pakistan was a capitalist country, the monopolisation of transport business by the government through loan financed projects also violated Article 18 of the Constitution.

He asked the court to declare these acts as unconstitutional and illegal and sought directives for respondents to provide details about the loan, purchasing of buses and hand over the same to the public, who ought to run/ operate them instead.

After a preliminary hearing, the bench in it order noted that the petition did not fit for issuance of a writ as the matter squarely came within the domain of the executive branch as per the well-established principle of trichotomy of powers and the interference sought would result in judicial overreach, which has been repeatedly deprecated by the Supreme Court.

"Under the circumstances, the petition is found to be misconceived, and, while granting the application for urgency, we accordingly dismiss the same in limine, along with the other miscellaneous applications with costs of Rs25,000 to be deposited by the petitioner towards the high court clinic within seven days from the date of this order", it concluded.

Petrol pump constructed on 'KU land' sealed

KARACHI: The district administration on Thursday sealed the illegally constructed petrol pump on the premises of the University of Karachi (KU) after it was found to be operating despite the cancellation of its no-objection certificate (NOC) by the authorities.

A KU official told Dawn that even though its NOC had already been cancelled by the East deputy commissioner on January 19, Haifz Petrol Pump — constructed illegally on the university's land near the Kaneez Fatima Society — was inaugurated and fuel sales had begun on Jan 22. The matter was reported to higher authorities, which prompted swift action by the East DC, on whose orders the fuel station was sealed with immediate effect.

The petrol pump would soon be demolished and the land would be restored to its original condition, the official said and added that the mechanism for this is being devised. Police and other relevant departments have also been informed, while the district administration would take further legal action, he explained.

The official also shared that similar action would also be taken against Awami Petrol Pump, which is another illegal fuel station built on the university's land on the Main University Road.

Influential persons have been attempting to illegally occupy KU land and the varsity administration is pursuing legal action against the land grabbers. —By Waqas Ali Ranjha

Gul Plaza fire death toll rises to 67 as search continues negligence of the owner.

They said the shop owner had been traced and interviewed and he told investigators that his two minor sons were playing in the shop while he was away. While playing, they lit a match and threw it into the shop without putting it out before leaving. As a result, the shop caught fire due to the presence of combustible material, the sources added.

An official told Dawn on condition of anonymity that the shop owner's account was also corroborated by other witnesses.

He said that since it was an accident, the owner or his sons had not been detained.

Meanwhile, officials said that there were no effective fire safety arrangements inside the plaza, as out of 1,200 shops, "only 200" shops had fire extinguishers.

An Edhi Foundation spokesperson in a statement said that three bodies were handed over to relatives after identification.

One victim, Sarfraz, 47, owned a gift shop in the plaza while two others, Mohammed Usman, 24, and Mohammed Rizwan, 24, worked at a crockery and a photo frame shop respectively.

Two of them were residents of Garden and Metroville areas, while the third belonged to Gujranwala.

Also on Thursday, many people, including a large number of women, gathered outside the plaza and staged a protest, criticising the slow pace of the operation.

The protesters said six days had passed, but their children were still buried under the debris, while their mothers had been devastated.

Fire tragedy exposed 'Sindh Vision' of PPP, says JI

By Our Staff Reporter

KARACHI: The Jamaat-i-Islami (JI) said on Thursday that the Gul Plaza tragedy has exposed the so-called "Sindh Vision" of Pakistan Peoples Party (PPP) Chairman Bilawal Bhutto-Zardari and reduced it to ashes.

Addressing a press conference at the party headquarters Idara Noor-i-Haq, JI Karachi chief Monem Zafar said that the PPP has been ruling Sindh for the past 17 years, yet all institutions under the Sindh government have become "a clear symbol of failure." The PPP government in Sindh, he added, has become a "security risk" for Karachi.

Mr Zafar also announced to take out the "Let Karachi Live March" on February 1 for the rights of Karachiites. Flanked by Opposition Leader in the City Council Advocate Saifuddin, Secretary of Information Zahid Askari and other leaders, he said that despite several days having passed since the Gul Plaza tragedy, all bodies have still not been recovered.

70-year-old sanitation worker dies after falling in drain

KARACHI: A sanitation worker died when he fell into a drain while cleaning it in Federal B Industrial Area on Thursday.

Rescue-1122 spokesperson Hassaan Ul Haseeb Khan told Dawn that two sanitation workers were cleaning a drain near Sajan Kanta. The 70-year-old labourer, Inayat, with the help of his assistant, entered the manhole for cleaning, but he slipped into the drain.

A rescue team with trained divers recovered the body, which was taken to the Abbasi Shaheed Hospital for medico-legal formalities. —Staff Reporter
